BRITAIN IS AT WAR

SUPPORT THE BNP

Islamist terrorism is literally blowing our children to pieces

It's blood on the hands of every single politician who ever supported the failed multiculturalism project and their pernicious Mass Immigration agenda

Editor
Charlie Wythe

According to MI5 there are more than 23,000 Islamist jihadis operating in cells and actively plotting murderous terror attacks on British soil.

The Islamists have declared war on Britain and they have been very clear about their aims but the politicians are in denial and refuse to listen.

The time for talk is over. Now we need action!

Britain is at war and to protect the lives of British citizens, the British Government must operate on a war footing and take the radical action necessary to protect the public from further attacks.

The politicians – without any vote, debate or mandate of any kind from the British people – have introduced a fifth-column of Islamists hell-bent on killing British people, now they MUST take decisive action to fix the crisis they have created.

That action plans is laid out in this BNP publication.

The BNP has been proved to be decades ahead of its mainstream rivals in terms of policy.

The BNP made Immigration the biggest issue in British politics many years before the politicians would even dare to mention the word.

Islamisation – a direct product of the politicians' disastrous immigration policy – and the terror it has brought to the West is now the issue of our times.

In fact, the politicians have to this day failed everyone except the Islamists and their terrorists.

The mainstream political parties have looked to the BNP time and time again to provide them with popularist ideas for policy and in many notable cases, lifted policies directly from the BNP manifesto.

That's why it is the responsibility of the BNP to deliver the radical and comprehensive action plan crucial to keeping British citizens safe.

1 DEPORT ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISTS AND THEIR FAMILIES

Scotland Yard has already announced that there are at least 3,500 jihadis in Britain with estimates weighing in at more than 23,000 operating in cells and actively plotting murderous terror attacks.

This means that by the standards of the Government of the United States, the British Government is a rogue state harbouring terrorists.

The parents of the Manchester bomber were given refugee status and refuge in Britain from Libya; this is how they repaid our kindness.

They have proved their incapacity and inability to integrate with British society. Britain owes these people nothing!

Britain owes them nothing

No room for debate with Islamists

Britain needs to think again on immigration. Western morals stemming from our Christian heritage, love of freedom and traditions have endowed us with virtues that are simply not shared around the world and in other cultures.

Islamists have one interest and one aim: further Islam and to hell with the unbelievers.

There's no room for debate because these people refuse to be reasoned with.

The only option is to deny them access into Britain and root out and expel those already here.

Never mind 'human rights'

Since its creation, the BNP has advocated tearing up the European Convention on Human Rights (a criminals' charter) to allow the deportation of Islamic fundamentalists. It would mean that the Supreme Court can no longer block deportations on grounds of 'human rights'. If any 'human rights' are to be acknowledged, its the right of the British people to be protected from terror.

Lawyer and London Mayor Sadiq Khan used 'human rights' to defend Islamists extremists

Police and intelligence at breaking point

Britain simply does not have the capacity to police the Islamists plotting terror to harm to our citizens, and why should we? Those who choose to come and live in Britain only to demonstrate that they have no intention of living within the constraints of British law and common decency should be expelled. It's common sense and it needs to happen.

Senior counter-terrorist officer Mark Rowley has confirmed that Islamist terror plots are being foiled in Britain every single day!

2 INTRODUCE DETAINMENT CENTRES

We are at war!

The Islamists have declared war on Britain; the British Government deliberately refuses to listen and accept the reality.

Given the surging level of crime committed by those in the Muslim community, our prisons are being taken over and other prisoners forced to convert or face violent repercussions.

Action needs to be taken, and this needs to stop!

Isolate the sizeable Muslim convict population into separate prisons. Create special jails for Islamists awaiting deportation.

Island detainment or offshore detainment centre ships – remove the threat to all British citizens from our communities in the interest of all our safety.

The BNP's plan to create detainment centres for Islamists comes as former MET Police Chief Tarique Ghaffur announced the need for 'detainment camps' for Islamists.

Clear up our prisons

MI5 has admitted that there are more than 23,000 Islamist jihadis in Britain posing a 'residual risk' to the lives of British citizens. The fact that the British Government is aware of this and taking no action to intern, expel or extradite them means that by the standards of the United States, the British Government is guilty of harbouring terrorists.

Muslims make up 5% of the population of the UK yet comprise 15% of the prison population and 20% of maximum security detainees.

The Quilliam Foundation describe British prisons as 'ripe' recruitment grounds for extremists. "Against this background we note that some prisoners and staff found the Muslim presence overwhelming," stated a 2015 report carried out into British prisons.

Furthermore the Prison Officers Association found that Islamist gangs were running maximum security jails with "clear evidence of an Islamic gang culture aimed at young men".

It's vital that Islamists are detained and isolated to prevent them radicalising others.

Detaining IRA militants failed and bred more! That's the line some media pundits have trotted out. The fact is that the internment of IRA suspects was poorly planned, and done on the basis of inadequate intelligence. Northern Ireland would not be the model for Islamist internment.

Common sense... they get it

It's not just the BNP talking sense on the subject, Colonel Richard Kemp declared that Britain needs "something like Guantanamo Bay."

"We have the finest intelligence services and the finest police services in the world, they have protected us from this kind of attack time and time again. Hundreds of attacks have been stopped, thousands of terrorists have been put in prison. But the problem is there are 23,000 known jihadists operating on the streets of the UK today."

Almost all the Islamist terrorists that have attacked British people were known to the authorities.

Colonel Richard Kemp has called for Britain to create detainment centres "something like Guantanamo Bay"

3 END SOFT-TOUCH BRITAIN

The Manchester bomber used state benefits to fund the slaughter of our children.

Soft-touch Britain is not only costing the British people an arm and leg in taxes; it's literally blowing our children apart.

In spite of international law clearly stating that an asylum seeker must seek refuge in the next safest country, hordes of bogus asylum seekers from the most backward nations and cultures travel across countless countries and even entire continents to claim benefits from the welfare state in Britain, paid for by us hard working Brits.

A magnet for the World's scroungers

Free housing, free TV and the promise of plenty of taxpayers' money attracts the World's scroungers to Britain

Article 26 of the Asylum Precedures Directive (APD) adopted by the European Parliament in 2013, states that those seeking asylum must do so in the first safe country which will take them.

By virtue of our geographical location, Britain should be one of the last stops for refugees leaving the Middle East and Africa.

Even EU officials are finally admitting that most 'refugees' – at least 60% – are in fact economic migrants.

A cartoon 'money-tree' guide which 'encourages' people to claim 'very generous' benefits in the UK was circulated in March 2016 by British-based newspaper Polish Express illustrating just how much the welfare system of soft-touch Britain appeals to those who wish to abuse it.

Taxes for terror

The Muslim community is twice as likely to be unemployed and claiming benefits than any other community in Britain according to a 2016 report compiled by a House of Commons committee.

Islamist Hate Preachers rely on the British welfare state to fund them and their families while they spread their extremism and message of hate against the British state.

The fact that Islamist Hate Preachers are lavished with huge sums of money, million-pound homes and a whole host of other benefits from the welfare state means that the British Government is forcing the British people to actively sponsor terror. It's a national disgrace.

44% of Muslim women say they cannot work because they must look after the home compared with 16% of the general British population

LET'S GET THIS INTO PERSPECTIVE

Genuine refugees in World War II sought refuge in the nearest safe nation

In World War II, Jews fled Nazi occupied Europe to seek refuge in the first safe haven they could reach. Ask yourself this: how many Jews in WW2 – genuine refugees at that time – would have travelled to the next safest country and then said: "I don't find the welfare system in this country useful, I'll walk to another"? Yet, it's the exact sentiment of millions of the economic migrants that the mainstream media disingenuously describes as 'Syrian refugees'.

4 NO MORE FOREIGN WARS – BRING OUR HEROES HOME

The continual interference and meddling in Muslim nations has incited Islamist jihadis to indiscriminately target Westerners for death, despite the fact that we ordinary citizens NEVER backed these foreign invasions and many actively and vocally spoke out against them.

These wars, in the interest of Israeli geographical supremacy in the Middle East and US foreign domination, do not warrant a single drop of British blood.

The continual harassment, meddling, and funding of Islamist terror groups against the legitimate Syrian Government MUST stop!

Syria – until recently, home to the most ancient Christian community and a haven for different Muslim communities and Jews – was the only secular Muslim nation in the Middle East and a barrier holding back the tide of Middle Eastern and Third World hordes seeking benefits in Europe.

Put former Prime Minister Tony Blair on trial for war crimes and demonstrate to the world that we mean business and justice will be served!

The REAL party for peace

BNP delegates discuss with top brass in the Syrian Parliament how to prevent Britain going to war with Syria

In 2013, David Cameron announced a vote in Parliament to decide whether the UK should join the US in pre-emptively attacking the legitimate government of Syria.

Since the British Government had callously severed ties with Syria, the latter reached out to the BNP for help.

Having travelled to Damascus, the BNP peace delegation met in the Syrian Parliament with high-level government officials to write an official letter to MPs declaring Syria's commitment to work with the UK to defeat ISIS. Every MP received the letter just hours before the crucial vote. The vote was cast in favour of not interfering by just a handful of votes. Barak Obama subsequently announced that the US would not go to war without the UK.

While warmongering fat-salaried MPs call for illegal attacks on sovereign foreign nations, the BNP is on the ground actively working for peace.

Bring our Heroes home

Meddling by the West in the Middle East must stop! Overthrowing Saddam Hussein sent Iraq spiralling into a howling wilderness of sectarian violence and the rise of ISIS; butchering Muammar Gaddfi opened the gates for millions of Sub-Saharan Africans to flood Europe; now these criminal politicians are desperate to overthrow Bashar al-Assad. Western military interference in the Middle East is a source of radicalisation for Muslims, it's costing the British taxpayer £billions and the lives of our troops. Bring our Heroes home now. We need them protecting British citizens here.

5 SHUT DOWN RADICALISED MOSQUES

Radicalised mosques are known to the authorities who fail to act because they are tied up with red tape and scared of being called 'racist' by their fellow Politically Correct peers, institutions and the MSM (mainstream media).

Radical mosques are breeding grounds for Islamist terrorists.

The confiscation of mosques from irresponsible and dangerous Islamist communal leaders and their subsequent closure is an essential and necessary move to stem the proliferation of radicalisation.

Sleeping with the enemy

A report on the full extent of Islamic radicalisation in Britain has not been made available for public scrutiny. It appears set to remain that way because the Home Office has admitted that an investigation into foreign funding and support of jihadi groups authorised by David Cameron may never be released having been described as too 'sensitive'.

Why might this be the case? Britain's former ambassador to Saudi Arabia, Sir William Patey, has confirmed that Saudi Arabia is the principle financial sponsor of radical mosques preaching the Salafist (the term 'Wahabbist' has fallen out of favour) strain of Islam. His claim is backed up by European leaders.

The British Government has a record of turning a blind eye to ensure that lucrative arms deals are unimpeded by awkward facts.

Manufacturing hate

In 2007, Islamic studies expert Dr Denis MacEoin, led a two-year project which uncovered a hoard of extremist literature inside as many as a quarter of Britain's mosques. All of it had been published and distributed by agencies linked to the government of Saudi Arabia.

Among some of the content found in the material were recommendations to burn, stone, and throw homosexuals from mountains or tall buildings, and inflict the same on those who dare to leave or change their religion.

It is estimated that Saudi spending on religious causes abroad is between £960Million and £1,440Million per year since 1975. This sum has been spent on more than 1,500 mosques, 210 Islamic centres and dozens of Muslim academies and schools.

The colossal sum is double that spent by the Soviet Union during the Cold War on propaganda.

It is no exaggeration then to say that these mosques are little more than propaganda factories producing Salafist ideologues to populate the streets of Britain.

BNP's David Furness attends a debate on 'Islamophobia'

The BNP engages directly with the Muslim community to tackle the problems of Islamism and discuss ways to deal with the politicians' failed multicultural experiment. The politicians created the problem and now they're running scared from the monster they've created. Dialogue with those in the Muslim community who are prepared to debate is important step forward.

6 REMOVAL OF POLITICAL CORRECTNESS CZARS

Create a special independent intelligence unit to isolate and remove Politically Correct (PC) heads of authorities.

The poisonous ideology of Political Correctness has resulted in the mass rape and torture of children in Rotherham and countless other towns and cities and the slaughter of our children in Manchester.

Set up an independent anti-Political Correctness unit to identify and remove Politically Correct police chiefs and heads of authority.

After the Rotherham horrors were exposed and the extent of the collusion by the police, politicians, and authorities to cover it up, the Labour Party Political Police Chief Shaun Wright refused to not only accept any blame but also refused to resign for weeks.

He did so after a media campaign aided by BNP pressure and activism.

Despicable PC authorities

Vile: Ex-Labour Cllr and South Yorkshire Police and Crime Commissioner Shaun Wright

Following a 15-year tireless campaign, the BNP finally succeeded in forcing an independent inquiry into the Muslim rape gangs in Rotherham. The findings were truly horrific! A culture of targeting, torturing and gang raping young white girls by gangs of men of "Pakistani heritage" was uncovered.

What's more, authorities were found to have covered up these crimes to secure the Muslim bloc vote and avoid being called 'racist', while actively striving to discredit and silence 1,400+ victims.

Unrepentant, Police & Crime Commissioner Shaun Wright was eventually forced to resign.

The BBC had actively worked with PC police chiefs to try jailing BNP activists to silence them and stop them from speaking out.

A very uneasy alliance

Uneasy: "The enemy of my enemy is my friend"

Political Correctness is a product of postmodern, neo-Marxist ideology.

In the late 1960s, a strategy was formulated to create the conditions for revolution dubbed 'the long march through the institutions' which required radicals to infiltrate all institutions of society and shape them from inside.

Half a century later, this strategy has proved devastatingly effective. Political Correctness has infected almost every institution of society; schools, media, entertainment, literature, police, politics, local authorities, business and even the church.

Since its creation Islam has been hell-bent on conquering Europe and destroying Western culture. With that common aim, Marxists have come to view Islam favourably as an uneasy ally.

As a result, PC advocates have become Islamophiles, lavishing Islamists with platitudes and pandering to the Muslim community at the expense of all the rest. Rotherham was an horrific example of how PC authorities have betrayed the British people.

7 HATE PREACHERS DETAINED AND DEPORTED

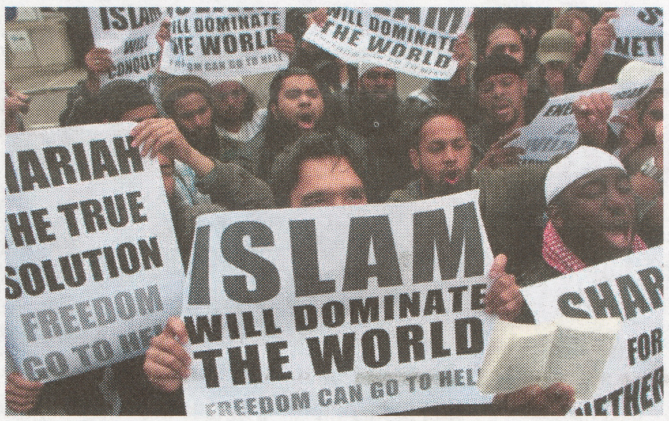
The aforementioned independent special intelligence unit will also be responsible for identifying radical Islamist clerics for detainment and expulsion from Britain under the classification of 'persona non grata'.

They will be detained for the duration of negotiations and until a deal can be made with their country of origin or a Muslim nation which will take them.

Once a deal is made, they will be deported.

Any appeal on the grounds of 'human rights' is to be repealed and no exemption will be given to whether they happened to have been born on British soil or not.

Brits forced to fund hate



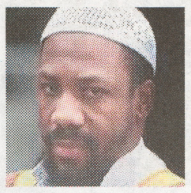
The face of hate, driven by Islamist Hate Preachers

The British Government provides financial support and houses for some of the most radical Islamists in the world. Effectively, the British Government is forcing the British taxpayer to sponsor Islamist terror. It's a scandal of our age.

Islamists actively use the good will and accommodating nature of the British people against us in their drive to destroy everything we hold dear. Far from bringing to Britain anything of benefit, Islamist Hate Preachers spread hatred of non-Muslims, call for terrorist acts and mass murder, and actively steal from the welfare state to benefit themselves and their families to our detriment.

They encourage leeching from the taxpayer because being a burden on the British taxpayer is another way of sabotaging our otherwise functioning society.

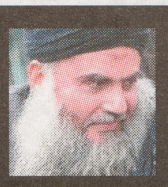
These hate preachers are self-confessed, fanatic enemies of both the British state and its people, that's why their immediate removal from our homeland is absolutely vital in combating Islamist extremism.



"You can use chemical weapons to exterminate the unbelievers. Is that clear? If you have cockroaches in your house, you spray them with chemicals."
British-based Islamist Hate preacher
Sheikh Abdullah el-Faisal trained at a Saudi university

TIP OF THE ICEBERG

Until being extradited to the US to serve a life sentence in prison for terrorism, Islamist Hate Preacher Abu Hamza and his family received £33,800 per year and lived in a £1.25Million house given to them by the British state and paid for by the British taxpayer.



In 2012, the authorities housed Islamist Hate Preacher Abu Qatada in a £450,000 North London property. He subsequently defied every lame effort by the British government to have him expelled from the country and finally left off his own volition after costing the British taxpayer £Millions in court costs.

Islamist Hate Preacher Anjem Choudary, linked to 15 terror plots since 2000, received £25,000 in benefits per year. Choudary was better paid by the British state than murdered soldier Lee Rigby for his services to his country.

"We [Britain] may not be the first society in human history to be paying both sides in a conflict, but we're probably the first society to pay our enemies better than our own troops"

8 BAN THE BURQA

The burqa, like the minarets on mosques, is a symbol of Islamic conquest and colonisation.

The wearing of the burqa is a blatant affront to the culture in which these people chose to live and a defiant refusal to behave according to the most basic norms of civilised Western society.

The act of concealing one's identity is tantamount to community terror; it is intimidating, threatening and a danger to the safety and well-being of the public at large.

With the exception of safety equipment (such as dust masks and visors) and helmets – permitted to be worn only during those activities and the operation of heavy equipment – concealment of the face is illegal and the law must be upheld.

No exemption to this rule will be made on religious grounds.

Statement of radicalisation

The wearing of the burqa and niqab is a conspicuous display of the refusal to accept the Western culture of the lands in which they have chosen to live

The burqa is a symbol of radicalisation. No 'moderate' Muslim wears one.

To this end, the wearing of the burqa has already been banned in several European countries including Switzerland, Austria, Bulgaria, Latvia, Belgium, France and Holland.

Even majority-Muslim Egypt drafted a 2016 bill banning the burqa from being worn in public and in government institutions, and was even described as being 'un-Islamic' and not required in the practise of Islam.

Accessory to terror

The significant security threat that the burqa poses has been exploited by terrorists and criminals alike.

In November 2013, Islamist terror suspect Mohammed Ahmed Mohamed with links to Somalian terror group al-Shabaab, disappeared from an east London mosque after police believe he disguised himself in a burqa to evade detection.

In May 2017, a violent gang of thieves were jailed after committing a series of raids across Manchester while wearing burqas to hide their identity.

Burqas have been used in notable crimes owing to its nature of concealing ones identity

Following the London Bridge Islamist terror attack on 3rd June 2017, police were forced to shoot a woman wearing a burqa during a raid to foil an 'active plot'.

Did you know?

Nowhere in the Quran does it explicitly state that Muslim women must wear a burqa. The veiling of women predates Islam and was adopted from Persia and Byzantine culture. There's nothing from the early Islamic period about what the veil (khimar) should cover, whether face, body or hair.

The Quran, in Sura 24:31, reminds Muslim women simply of the need to 'draw…[it] over their bosoms'. One of Mohammed's wives is commanded to speak from behind a 'hijab' (Arabic for 'curtain') in Quran Sura 33:53. One of Mohammed's wives provided details about the khimars but no record exists as to exactly how they were worn.

9 TEMPORARY BAN ON ALL IMMIGRATION

The engineered Mass Immigration agenda into Europe and subsequently Britain has been consciously and disingenuously framed as a 'refugee crisis'; the political class and the MSM are directly responsible for the astonishing rise in crime and terrorism.

Waging war on, and bombing, a foreign sovereign nation, while at the same time inviting millions of people from that country to come and live in Britain, is not merely an act of suicide, but one of madness.

But this is exactly what the degenerate political class in Britain has done, and their irresponsible actions are now costing the lives of ordinary people and our children.

Without any debate, vote or mandate of any sort, the political class has forced the most pernicious and disastrous policy ever imposed on the British people.

Enough is enough!

They've introduced to Britain a fifth column of Islamist jihadis hell-bent on killing us all – innocent men, women, and children.

Stop all further immigration until we can sort out the politicians' immigration shambles.

Introduce a moratorium on all immigration

Even immigrants have had enough!
Muslim member of BBC's Question Time audience angrily slams the politicians on the panel over their mass immigration policy which he lamented was totally transforming parts of Britain beyond all recognition

Immigration into Britain has been out of control for decades with the politicians having overseen the entire shambles. No one has any real idea of how many illegal immigrants there are in Britain. The Home Office estimates 'more than 1.2Million' – suggesting the real number will vastly exceed that.

The population is forecast to reach 70Million by 2020 and projected to continue rising with no end in sight and no plans to cap it. Our schools are overcrowded, our NHS is at breaking point, housing is critical and the tax-payer is paying vast sums to those who have never paid in a penny.

Where's the Muslim charity?

Muslim charity in the wake of the 'Syrian refugee crisis' has left much to be desired. There are several stable and prosperous Muslim states in the Middle East including Qatar which could easily and better provide for Muslim refugees. Saudi Arabia has not taken a single Syrian refugee despite 100,000 huge air-conditioned tents standing vacant. Instead it responded to criticism by offering to pay for hundreds more mosques across Germany. By contrast, Turkey has taken in several million which has provided Turkish despot Rycep Erodoğan with a tool to blackmail and extort vast sums of money from the EU.

10 NEVER MIND INTERNET CENSORSHIP

In the same way that George W Bush used the attack on 9/11 to curtail rights of US citizens in the name of their own safety, Theresa May is looking to introduce far-reaching internet censorship to punish all for the actions of murderous Islamists.

May and her Conservatives have no idea how to practically respond to the terror attacks in Britain because they only exist to do their paymaster's bidding.

Step up the surveillance of Islamist websites and the activity of those frequenting Islamist websites and forums, monitor social networks for Islamist activity – and leave the rest of us alone.

Punishing all for the acts of a few

The precious little that Prime Minister Theresa May has done to fight Islamist terrorism has comprised primarily of talk about censoring our internet.

The 2017 Conservative manifesto listed several ways in which they intended to introduce Chinese-style censorship to shut down or ban companies that didn't comply with their controversial proposals.

Despite little proof that Islamist radicalisation took place online, May announced that she would seek "international agreements" to "regulate cyberspace".

Not only is this punishing the many for atrocious actions of the comparatively few Islamists they have let into the country, but critics have claimed weakening internet encryption will put the identity of internet users in jeopardy and actually serve to aid the terrorists.

May's insistence to consciously conflate 'Islam' with "extremism in all its forms" should ring alarm bells for all lovers of freedom.

May's 'extremists' include anyone who objects to the politicians' pernicious multicultural agenda forcefully imposed on the British people.
